ZERO TOLERANCE – CONDUCT (INC DRIVING AND PARKING)

Under Section 547 of the Education Act 1996, it is a criminal offence to enter onto school premises and cause a nuisance or disturbance thereon to the annoyance of persons who lawfully use these premises. To do so constitutes a breach of Section 547 of the 1996 Act and is thereby a criminal offence.

Under Section 547, the Principal of the school can revoke permission to enter the school premises for such behaviour.

Due to a small number of site bans and warning letters having to be sent in the Autumn term, we have created a Zero Tolerance policy and notice. This can be found on the website here.

Swearing, threats, harassment or acts of violence will not be tolerated.

Behaviour and conduct that puts people in danger, including unsafe parking and driving, is also not acceptable.

Any forms of this behaviour could result in adults being banned from the premises.

Thank you so much to the vast majority of parents and carers who work with us in a calm and supportive manner.

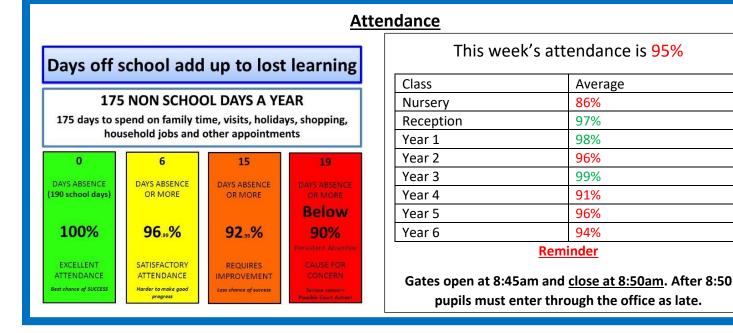

When reporting unsafe driving on site, please include the license plate number as we will now be referring all unsafe driving to the police and issuing 547 site bans if required.

Home School Agreement

We have updated our home school agreement which can be found here.
