

Year	History
	Autumn 1	Spring 1	Summer 1
1	Black History Month: Rosa Parks	Now and Then – Changes within living memory (toys)	Queen Elizabeth II and Queen Victoria
Key Question	How did Rosa Parks fight for her rights?	What are the main developments of toys throughout living memory?	How did Queen Victoria differ from Queen Elizabeth II?
Substantive Concepts	People who changed things The search for rights	Our Story Innovative Educators	People who changed things Our Story
2	Black History Month: Walter Tull	Major Event – First Flight (Wright Brothers)	Local history – development of Hattersley
Key Question	Why is Walter Tull a role model?	How different would the world be without aviation?	What were the most important developments throughout the history of Hattersley?
Substantive Concepts	People who changed things The search for rights	People who changed things Innovative Educators	Our Story
3	BHM: Martin Luther King and the American Civil Rights Movement	Prehistory: changes in Britain from the Stone Age to the Iron Age	Ancient Egypt
Key Question	What were the key events in the Civil Rights movement?	What were the developments that caused transition from the Stone to Bronze Age and then to Iron?	How important was religion to Egyptian society?
Substantive Concepts	People who changed things The search for rights	Civilisations of significance	Civilisations of significance Innovative Educators
4	BHM: Aboriginal Australia	Ancient Greece – a study of Greek life and achievements and their influence on the western world	The Roman Empire and its impact on Britain
Key Question	In what key ways did the Aboriginal Australians tribes differ from other cultures?	What influences from Ancient Greek culture can you see in Britain today?	Is Britain a better place because of the Roman invasion?
Substantive Concepts	People who changed things Civilisations of significance The search for rights	Civilisations of significance Innovative Educators	Our Story Civilisations of significance
5	BHM: Gandhi and the history of Indian Subcontinent	Britain's settlement by Anglo-Saxons and Scots	Local history – pioneering women: Hannah Mitchell Eleanor Sykes Amanda Barr Dr. Erinma Bell
Key Question	What mistakes were made in the British rule of India?	What aspects of Viking society enabled them to invade?	What lasting impact have the women had upon our local area?
Substantive Concepts	People who changed things Civilisations of significance	Our Story	Our Story The search for rights
6	BHM: Nelson Mandela and Apartheid South Africa	A study of Baghdad c. AD 900	Thematic History – education and the progression of female rights and influence
Key Question	Can we trust all historical sources?	What made Baghdad a beacon of education during the 10 th Century?	How have women's rights and influence changed throughout history?
Substantive Concepts	People who changed things The search for rights	Civilisations of significance Innovative Educators	People who changed things The search for rights Innovative Educators

Substantive Concept
People who changed things
Our Story
Civilisations of significance
The search for rights
Innovative Educators